UPDATE: DATE CORRECTION FOR CEREMONY On Jul 3, 2015, at 7:26 PM, Maj Jon Kenney wrote: Sir, thank you very much for the response. In true Marine Corps fashion, the reactivation ceremony date changed to 17 SEP 15. I don't have any further details at the moment, but will pass them on to you as they emerge. Maj Kenney

Friends, Families, Marines and Sailors of 3d Battalion 4th Marines, We are proud and honored to inform you that 3d Battalion, 4th Marines is returning as an operational unit late this summer. It has been one year since the Battalion cased its colors on 30 May 2014, and as the Marine Corps recognized the requirement for an additional infantry battalion, it decided to reactivate the unit. The Battalion's home station will be the Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center (MCAGCC), Twentynine Palms, California. 3d Battalion will be officially activated on 01 Oct 2015, but prior to that 1st Marine Division and 7th Marine Regiment will host an activation ceremony on Thursday, 03 Sep 2015, the week prior to the Labor Day Weekend. We will provide more details regarding the upcoming ceremony in the near future and we would be honored by the attendance of families, friends, former and current members, and supporters of the Battalion. We will use our official FaceBook page as one of the primary means of disseminating public information related to the Battalion. Please pass the word so that other supporters of the "Thundering Third" can join us on FaceBook. (<https://www.facebook.com/3rdBattalion4thMarines>) We look forward to the challenges that lay ahead and we are honored to bring 3/4 back to its warfighting form.
